ABSTRACT

This selection of nearly 600 paperback books, art reproductions, films, filmstrips, and records is intended for classroom, reference, and general reading purposes. The audio-visual materials complement the books. The materials included cover the following areas: art and music; African history, government, and culture; Afro-American history and culture; other minorities--American Indians, Orientals, Spanish-speaking peoples; social sciences--sociology, anthropology, psychology, urban studies, the ghetto, housing, poverty, welfare, and employment; religion, the Church and racism, and Judaism and anti-Semitism; education, integration, and youth; bibliographies, booklists, and reference works; literature--biography (individual and collective), pottery, drama, adult fiction, young adult fiction, and juvenile fiction; and, a selected list of bibliographies. A directory of publishers of these works is also included. (RJ)

THE COMBINED PAPERBACK EXHIBIT

Introducing . . .

RED, WHITE and BLACK (and BROWN and YELLOW): Minorities in America

Many teachers, librarians and department heads in schools, colleges, and in public libraries often do not have sufficient opportunity to examine the growing volume of paperback books and audio-visual materials on all of the minorities, appropriate for classroom, reference or for general reading purposes. Aware of the need for information on the availability of this material, The Combined Paperback Exhibit presents this collection of nearly 600 selected paperback books, art reproductions, filmstrips, films and records from about 100 publishers and producers.

The paperbacks in this Exhibit cover a wide range of materials on minority groups for students, teachers and the general public. They may be considered for classroom texts or for collateral reading; for required, recommended or independent study; for library collections and for personal libraries. The audio-visual materials effectively complement the books to enrich the classroom experience.

You are invited to examine the Exhibit at your leisure and to mark your catalog with your own selections or recommendations for future ordering. It should be remembered that some of the publishers and producers may have submitted only a representative title or two out of a series. You may wish to write to them for additional information about specific titles or subject areas, for examination or desk copies of books, and for preview of films or filmstrips, or for their complete catalog.

On page 30 of this catalog is an order form for purchasing books or requesting examination and desk copies or for preview of films. Book Orders may be sent to booksellers or to the publisher. Requests for Examination or preview should be sent to the publisher or producer.

If you wish information on sources of supply, please write to us.

Orders are not to be placed with The Combined Paperback Exhibit.

The Exhibit (consisting of books, audio-visual items, display racks, catalogs and promotion materials) is sent on loan to school systems, colleges, public libraries, library schools, teacher-training institutions, etc. After the display period the institution may purchase or sell the single copies of items on display at a special discount. The only charge is for return transportation costs of any items not purchased or sold.

In addition to this Red, White and Black Exhibit, three other Exhibits are available: an Elementary School Exhibit for grades K-8, a Junior-Senior High School Exhibit for grades 7-12, and a College Exhibit. These may be sponsored by the same kinds of institutions noted above, to be used during the academic year or for summer or academic year Institutes, workshops, other conferences, etc. Please write us for information, catalogs or application forms.
